

Commit to Connect Nationwide Network of Champions: Roles & Responsibilities

As a Commit to Connect Champion:

- I will be a part of a group of passionate leaders, innovators and practitioners at the local, state and national level dedicated to ending social isolation and loneliness.
- I will have opportunities to connect to and gain support from a collaborative network via an online network hub.
- I can stay informed on the latest research, tools and public awareness efforts from Commit to Connect.
- My contributions will be valued, including suggestions for improving the network.
- I will have opportunities to participate in relevant learning and professional development activities, such as discussion forums, working groups and events.
- I can choose to share feedback and insights from my community and organization, including invitations to participate in occasional surveys or polls to help inform the improvement of the network and the overall Commit to Connect Initiative

As a Commit to Connect Champion, my responsibilities will be:

- ✓ To help deliver appropriate, informed solutions to engage and connect those who are/or at-risk of social isolation and loneliness.
- ✓ To build awareness of social isolation and loneliness, and promote best practices and resources throughout my professional networks and communities.
- ✓ To help to identify programs and technologies that address social isolation and loneliness, and submit them for consideration to be included in the inventory/clearinghouse.
- ✓ To support a collaborative network of local, state and national leaders and encourage open communication among fellow champions, treating everyone with respect and dignity.
- ✓ To help measure our success by sharing insights and information. (Champions will track the total number of socially isolated individuals reached periodically through their respective work. Learn more about how Commit to Connect is collecting information here.)

As a Commit to Connect Champion, I will not:

- ✗ Promote commercial, political or personal interests within the Commit to Connect Network Hub or when representing Commit to Connect.
- ✗ Use Commit to Connect logos or brand to promote commercial, political or personal interests.

Thank you for your interest in joining the Commit to Connect Nationwide
Network of Champions!
